

I oppose any weakening of the Indiana Law to prevent banks from soliciting business from me via telephone soliciting. I already get and excessive amount of mail from banks and am intelligent enough to go to one of their banks if I want to change.